

GONE TOO SOON

As we opened our eyes this morning
We realised life still goes on,
But lately our lives have less meaning
Because of someone that's gone.

A life that ended too early,
Made our worlds fall apart,
And now we are left here without you,
With sadness and pain in our hearts.

Gone too soon, you have left us,
You took the stars and the moon,
The sun doesn't shine like it used to
Because you were gone too soon.

We put on a brave face for others;
We try to be strong amongst friends,
But we are still thinking about you
As yet another day ends.

We know this hurt we are feeling
Will never get better again;
You have left such an emptiness,
That's now filled with sorrow and pain.

We cry when we think about you
We cry for you to be near,
We cry when we see your picture,
We cry because you're not here.

Gone too soon were the good times.
It's something like bursting a balloon.
One minute it's there before you,
#and the next it's gone too soon.
